THE SPIRITUAL EXERCISES

Retreat in Everyday Life

Week of Prayer #4 "God's Invitation to Greater Freedom" (p. 57- 62)

Though we only gradually come to know our purpose, we have some instinct of what it involves: loving, giving life, creating, being free, serving what's beyond ourselves. This is the deep theme of our retreat; we will return to it often. For now, we taste the attraction of freedom and balance in our lives; freedom to let go of what gets in the way; balance to choose what we are created for. Take some notes and be ready to share.

DISASTER RELIEF COLLECTION

Next Sunday, October 14, we will be participating in the Archdiocese-wide collection for Disaster Relief, to fund assistance efforts following the earthquake/tsunami in Indonesia and Hurricane Florence domestically. Donations will go to support the efforts of Catholic Relief Services. Please make checks out to Bellarmine Chapel with CRS in the memo line.

October 10, 2018 Is Your God Better than Mine?

Rev. Thomas Richstatter, PhD. OFM

We presume that when we use the word "God" we all mean the same thing. However, there are many different ways in which people understand who God is. How has your image of God been formed? How do you know if the God you pray to is the God that actually exists?

Writing for Earth's Sake: Listening to Nature is offered by the Sisters of Charity Spirituality Center on Tuesday, October 16 from 7-9 PM. We will explore ways God speaks to us through writing, by using everyday moments in nature and in life that we may otherwise miss. There are many ways to pray and writing is one which can lead to a deeper understanding of ourselves and the spiritual life. This session is meant for all levels of writers and prayers. The program will be held at the Sisters of Charity Motherhouse, 5900 Delhi Road. FEE: $15 payable at registration. For information contact 513-347-5449 or spirituality.center@srcharitycinti.org.
