

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING, COVID-19, AND THE PATH FORWARD

Conversation with
Dr. John Sniegocki

MONDAY, JULY 6TH
LIVE STREAM @ 7PM

Catholic social teaching advocates economic equity and concern for the most vulnerable, providing a valuable lens for exploring the coronavirus crisis and its effects. Professor Sniegocki will draw on Catholic social teaching to consider the disparate impacts of the Covid crisis and what these impacts reveal concerning the need for structural changes in the United States and the broader world. He will show that Catholic social teaching offers critical insights for the path forward in this challenging moment.
